Sentenced Prisoners Taken South

Deputy U. S. Marshal, Schnabel left for McNeils Island on the Jefferson Tuesday in charge of several prisoners sentenced at the Juneau Grand Jury.

A Touch of Family Life.

When the country youth proposed to the city girl he received the conventional assurance that she would be his sister. It happened that this youth had sisters at home and knew exactly his privileges. So he kissed her. At this juncture she availed herself of the sisterly right to call out to father that brother was teasing her. Father responded in good muscular earnest. Then the new brother and sister relation was dissolved by mutual consent. —Judge's Library.

Rainless Thunderstorms.

The records of meteorological offices show that rainless thunderstorms have not been common, but a few are on record. The most extraordinary was encountered near Chestow, England, on Aug. 9, 1892. It began at 9 p. m. and lasted five hours, and in that time it was estimated 10,000 flashes of lightning were seen, but not one drop of water fell. In a thunderstorm at Cape Verde in 1903 the sky was a continuous blaze of lightning, lasting an hour, yet both rain and lower clouds were absent. —Boston Advertiser.

1911 Big Producer

It has been estimated by the Geological Survey that Alaska mines produced 22,900,000 pounds of copper in 1911. This is by far the largest output ever made by the Territory and is due to the beginning of production from the Copper River district and the increase output from the Prince William Sound district. The Copper River Railroad was completed to the Bonanza mine and shipment of ore began in April and continued through the year. There was also marked increase in output of the Prince William Sound district.

Commodore Returns

The Commodore returned from a trip to Juneau Wednesday evening and reports that they are enjoying some fine weather at that city. The trip to Juneau was made in 20 hours and the return trip in 18 hours which is considered remarkable time for a small power boat.

The Best Beef.

In selecting beef the pieces which are well mottled with fat will be found the richest and juiciest.

New Superintendent Shakan Cannery

T. E. P. Keegan, of Seattle, Wash., came up on the Jefferson Saturday and Tuesday morning left for Shakan on the Standard. Mr. Keegan will superintend the Shakan Cannery in place of P. J. Gorman who will stay on the sound this season.

Where Is It

Wrangell, Alaska, Jan. 22.
Editor of Wrangell Sentinel,
Sir:

Several months ago a bunch of school boys came to my office soliciting funds to purchase Band instruments. I gave $5 to help the boys. Since that time I have not heard a word or seen a sign of the Juvenile Band. Where is the band? Where is the money collected? Can you answer the question?

Yours Respectfully

Wm. F. Schnabel.

The above communication was received early in week. In answer the editor is sorry to say that the Juvenile Band is nix and that the money collected is to be returned to the donors, though delayed by the absence of F. C. Miles through whom the instruments were to be purchased.

Desires Information

Anxious friends and relatives are desirous of receiving information regarding the whereabouts of the following described persons.

AARON FOOT: Gold miner, supposed to be in Alaska. Only living relative is anxious to learn of his whereabouts.

B. W. JOHNSTON: Formerly of Paris, Texas, been in Alaska a number of years. About 37 years of age; last heard from at Fairbanks, in 1906; engaged in steamboating and prospecting. Daughter anxious to hear from him.

THOMAS LYNCH: Reported to have died in some Alaska hospital on the Yukon river. Party inquiring thinks may have been assumed name, right name being Harold Miller. Scotchman, light complexion, light blue eyes.

JOHN H. MORRIS: 40 years of age, 6 feet in height, gray eyes dark brown hair. A pitiful appeal from an old mother who is kept alive in the hope of seeing her boy again.

PAVLO NICOLICBHIA: 25 years of age; last heard of at San Francisco in February, 1911, at which time he claimed to be going to Alaska as a fisherman.

Evidence Wanted.

Hewitt—I want you to know that I have sense. Jewett—I never believe unconfirmed rumors. —New York Press.

Spokane Remodeled

The entire passenger accommodation plan of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's excursion steamer, Spokane, is being remodeled at an estimated total cost of $100,000. The plans include many conveniences and luxuries that will materially add to the comfort of the tourists on their 2,500 mile trip through the wonderland of the "midnight sun".

June 5th has been set as the date of first departure from Seattle of the 1912 schedule.

As "We" Took It

We quote below a very suggestive attempt at original witticism, from the Douglas Island News, in the form of a comment on a Church service announcement printed in the Sentinel some weeks ago.

"A Wrangell preacher took for his text the words 'Getting Hot,' which we may take either as up-to-date slang, or a hint as to the place some of the Wrangell folks are bound for."

Fisher Brothers Plead Guilty

In the case against Fisher Bros. of Seattle, for selling impure Jamaica ginger to a Wrangell firm they pleaded guilty and were fined $50 and cost.

Rolled Photographs.

An old picture dealer gave this useful hint for fattening out a picture or paper which has been rolled. Suppose that a photograph has been rolled with the face inside. Unroll and spread out on a flat surface with the face down. Now, with one hand hold down firmly one end of the picture and with the other draw the edge of a book or a ruler along the back of the photograph from the end you are holding to the other. If necessary repeat the process until the sheet is perfectly flat.

Voice of the Ant.

There are probably sounds in nature too acute to be distinguished by the human ear which may, however, be perfectly clear to the auditory sense of other members of the animal kingdom. It has been claimed that ants have the most perfect sound producing organs that have yet been discovered in insects. These are situated upon certain segments of the abdomen, the sounds being produced by rubbing. But nobody has ever heard these ant voices, although many authorities are convinced of their existence. An attempt was made to hear them with the aid of the microphone, but the only sound detected was that made by the crawling of the ants. —Exchange.

NOTICE OF MARSHAL'S SALE

United States of America)
District of Alaska

Public notice is hereby given, that by virtue of a writ of Fieri Facias (or execution), dated January 15, A. D. 1912, issued out of the District Court, of the United States for the First Division, District of Alaska, on a judgment rendered in said Court, on the 12th day of October, A. D. 1911, in favor of F. M. Jordan and against the El Capitan Mining Company, I have this 15th day of January, A. D. 1912, levied upon the following described personal property and real estate, situated in the District of Alaska, to-wit:

Those certain mining claims called the J. C. Rathbun Marble claim, the George Pulver Marble claim, and the George Kelly Marble claim, all of which were located on the 8th day of September, 1902, by J. C. Rathbun, Libbie C. Rathbun, Milton L. Van Dyke, Laura L. Van Dyke, George Pulver, Sallie B. Pulver, F. W. Woodman and E. A. P. Woodman; as an association of persons, the same being situated about eight miles from Shakan post office upon or near Klawak Passage, Prince of Wales Islands, District of Alaska, each of which claims containing one hundred and sixty acres and all as shown by the location certificates filed and now of record in the office of the Recorder of the Ketchikan Mining District, in Vol. 1 of Mines, at pages Rathbun, 464; Pulver, 465; Kelly, 466;

Those certain mining claims called the "W. A. Finn" marble mining claim, the R. L. Fox marble mining claims, and the Fielden Smith marble mining claim, as located, surveyed, recorded and as held by the locators thereof, situated in Wrangell Mining District, District of Alaska, described as follows: Each and all of said marble mining claims were located on the 15th day of January, 1900, by Louisa Finn, W. A. Finn, Fielden Smith, Eliza J. Smith, R. L. Fox, J. Q. Denton and Lucy Denton, as an association of persons, and the same being situated about eight miles from Shakan post office upon or near Klawak Passage, Prince of Wales Islands, District of Alaska, each of said claims containing one hundred and sixty acres, and all as shown by the location certificates thereof filed and now of record in the office of the recorder of said Wrangell Mining District, in Vol. 12 of mines, at pages 79, 80 and 81 thereof, and to which reference is hereby made;

One hundred and sixty acres of placer mining ground, being the Milton Van Dyke marble claim, situated on the Klawak Passage on the west coast of Prince of Wales Island, in the Ketchikan Mining District, District of Alaska, described as follows: to-wit: Beginning at the northeast corner of the W. A. Finn Marble claim, thence running westerly 320 rods; thence northerly 80 rods; thence easterly easterly 320 rods; thence southerly 80 rods to the place of beginning, the location notice whereof is recorded in the office of the Recorder of the Ketchikan Mining District in Vol. 2 of Mines, at page 305;

One hundred and sixty acres of placer ground, being the Seattle marble claim, situated on the Klawak Passage, on the west coast of Prince of Wales Island, in the Ketchikan Mining District, in the District of Alaska, described as follows: Beginning at the southeast corner of the R. L. Fox marble claim, thence running westerly 320 rods, thence southerly 80 rods, thence easterly about 320 rods to tide water; thence along the meander line to place of beginning, the location whereof is recorded in the office of the Recorder of the Ketchikan Mining District in Vol. 2 of Mines, at page 303;

One hundred and sixty acres of placer mining ground, being the Ridge marble claim, situated on the Klawak Passage, on the west coast of Prince of Wales Island in the Ketchikan Mining District, in the District of Alaska, described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at the northeast corner of the Milton Van Dyke marble claim, thence running westerly 320 rods; thence northerly 80 rods; thence easterly 320 rods; thence southerly 80 rods to the place of beginning, the location notice whereof is recorded in the office of the Recorder of the Ketchikan Mining District, in Vol. 2 of Mines at page 302.

One hundred and sixty acres of placer mining ground, being the South marble claim, situated on the Klawak Passage, on the west coast of Prince of Wales Island, in the Ketchikan Mining District, in the District of Alaska, described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at the southeast corner of the Seattle marble claim, thence running westerly to the southwest corner of said Seattle claim, thence southerly 80 rods to tide water; thence easterly 320 rods, or to tide water, thence along the meander line to the place of beginning, the location notice whereof is recorded in the office of the Recorder of the Ketchikan Mining District, in Vol. 2 of Mines at page 304.

And all re-locations and amended locations, if any, of each and all of said claims.

Also the following machinery, being located at or near the quarry upon said mining property, to-wit:

Three gang saws to saw 10'0" x 6'0" x 6'
Two 48"x5" Freni sand pumps for feeding sand or steel to saws.
One transfer car,
Three block cars for gangs.
One ton saw blades.
One 50 H. P. Atlas engine,
One 60 H. P. Boiler,
One 40 H. P. Boiler,
One 20 H. P. Boiler with winch attached.
One 6 1-2 Sullivan Channeller.
One V. X. Sullivan Channeller.
One 10 ton hand derrick with guys.
One drill press, blacksmith shop, blacksmith tools and forge.
One steam pump.

Pulleys, shafting and belting to run all machinery, and all derricks, tools, steel, ropes, tracks, cars and other personal property of whatsoever nature now on said mining property or used for the operation of the same;

Also two barges used in connection with the said mining property and lying in the waters adjacent thereto, one being 22x85 feet and the other being 12x30 feet;

Together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any way appertaining;

And that I will, accordingly, offer said personal property and real estate for sale, at public vendue to the highest and best bidder, for cash, on the 29th day of February, A. D. 1912, at 2 o'clock P. M. on the above mentioned premises situated about eight miles from Shakan, Prince of Wales Island, Alaska.

Dated January 5th, A. D. 1912.

H. L. FAULKNER,
U. S. Marshal,
District of Alaska.

A Trick Worth Trying.

Provide yourself with a ladder, which you place upon the ground. Climb to the top of the ladder and then pull it slowly up toward you, stepping downward upon the rungs until you reach the bottom of it. Mount to the top again and repeat the process, thus raising the ladder each time while you descend to the lowest rung, and continuing alternately to ascend and descend until you have passed out of sight. Come down in the same manner, and to give an extra touch of mystery to the feat on reaching the ground deftly palm the ladder. This trick never fails to awaken the audience to the greatest applause.—Chicago Post.

His Temporary Name.

"What name have you given your last born, Dick?" asked a southern man of a negro in his employ.

"Me an' mah wife has decided to call him Elijah Pro Tem Morgan," answered the negro, with an air of pride. "Why Pro Tem?"

"Dat's to show dat de middle name is only temporary, sah," explained the fond parent. "We kinder thought Elijah might like to choose his own name when he growed up, an' so we throwed in Pro Tem to show him whar to put 'em.'"—St. Louis Republic.

History.

History is made by one set of men and written by another. The character of the written history depends upon the politics of the historian. Most histories are written many years after the history was made. In these circumstances no one can step forward and dispute the historian. History is studied at school and forgotten at home.

We are told to judge the future by the past, and after we read the histories we are as badly muddled as ever.

Some statesmen make history, but most of them make speeches.—Judge's Library.

London's Muffin Man.

The muffin man had no monopoly of the street bell when William IV. was king, as John Ashton records in a sketch of that time. The dustman also rang a bell and yelled, and the postman's bell was a most popular institution.
 There were no pillar boxes in those days, and the sound of the bell brought people who lived far from a postoffice to their doors to give the postman their letters to post. In "Pickwick," however, we have evidence that even then the muffin man was chief among hand bell ringers. For when the town crier of Eatonsville proclaimed silence on the hustings by "a concerto on the bell" a gentleman in the crowd called "Muffins!"—London Mail.

PATRIOTISM.

Let our object be our country, our whole country and nothing but our country. And, by the blessing of God, may that country itself become a vast and splendid monument, not of oppression and terror, but of wisdom, of peace and of liberty, upon which the world may gaze with admiration forever.—
 Daniel Webster.

.401 Caliber

Self-Loading Rifle.

This new Winchester is reloaded by recoil,
 the repeating as well as the firing mechanism being under control of the trigger finger. A bullet fired from it strikes a blow of 2038 pounds—force enough to topple over the biggest game—penetration enough to reach the innermost vital spot. The wonderful in operation and powerful in execution, this rifle is neither complicated in construction nor cumbersome to handle.
